

Straw Hat King

I sail the seas with a straw hat crown,
With dreams so big they weigh me down.

Through storms and wars, I never flee,
The Pirate King's what I'm meant to be.

My friends, my crew, they stand by me,

Together we chase our destiny.

Each island holds a secret song,

In this wide world, we all belong.

With scarred hands and hopeful eyes,

I reach for freedom across the skies.

Gold and fame are not my goal-

I chase the sea to free my soul.
